SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The Classification Office classifies the CD-ROM slick Analizer as:
Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years.

The slick is intended as shelf advertising. The slick presents an image of female nudity that is considered indicative of the sexually explicit content of the associated CD-ROM. The title Analizer is a direct reference to anal intercourse. In view of this the availability of the slick is likely to be injurious to the public good unless its availability is restricted to adults. This restriction is considered to be a reasonable and demonstrably justified limitation of the rights and freedoms in s14 of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990.
